FROM DREAMS TO REALITY

Foreword . . .

Our grand old "School Marm," who taught at Marysville way back in the "twenties," decided to return and see the school of today. She is going to be amazed at what we have to show her - so here goes!

Senior Class

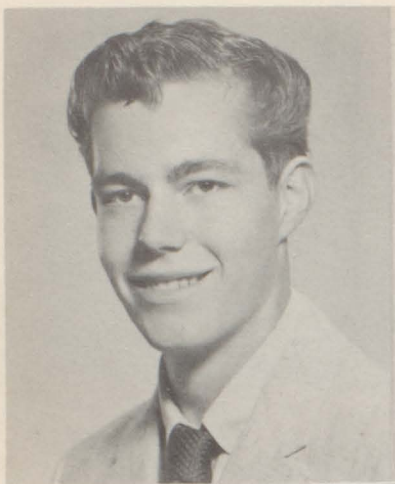

Class colors — silver and blue

Class flower — rose

Class motto — "Make the most of all that comes and the least of all that goes."

Jus' look at all the college professors!

Gerald Alexander

"The deeper the sin, the sweeter."

Gerry is a member of the Hi-Y Club, Varsity Club, Science Club and Pep Club. He has also belonged to the School Council. In the field of sports he has played basketball, track and intramural volleyball. His hobbies include all sports, chess, and pool. Gerry wants to be a lawyer some day.

Gerald Allen

"The stronger always succeeds."

As an active member of the Hi-Y club, Jerry worked on the program committee in his junior and senior years. He played football in the ninth grade and worked on the yearbook staff in the eleventh. His hobbies are boating, fishing, and swimming. Although he now works as a baker's assistant, he later hopes to attend Annapolis.

Alan Bagnall

"We cannot all do all things."

Alan's favorite sport is golf which he has played for three years. He played basketball in the ninth grade and has been a band member for three years. The Hi-Y has been his club-activity. Working at a grocery and stamp collecting are Alan's after-school activities.

Sharron Apley

"How near to good is what is fair."

As a junior, Sharron became a member of the Honor Society, the G.A.A., and participated in intramural sports. In her senior year she served as editor of the Viking, secretary of the Pep Club, and secretary-treasurer of the band, as a three-year member. Oil painting and skating are Sharron's hobbies. She intends to become a commercial artist.

Judy Beaudry

"Her very frowns are fairer far, Than smiles of other maidens are."

Judy worked in the library and was a member of the Library Club. She also was a member of the Pep Club for one year, and worked on the ticket committee for the Junior Play. Cooking and music are her hobbies and after graduation she plans to become a secretary.

Richard Beaudry

"He can never be good that is not obstinate."

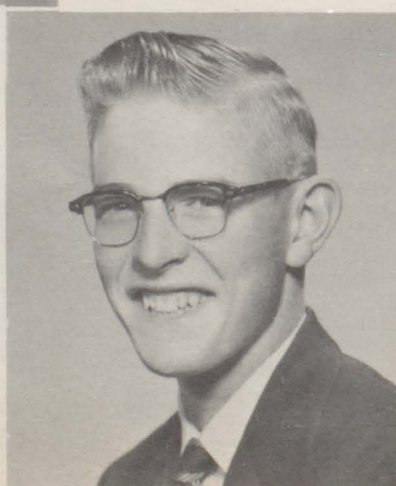

Dick participated in all of the intramural sports in the ninth and tenth grades. Fishing, hunting, and woodcraft are his hobbies. He has worked as a mechanic on co-op and after he finishes school he plans to enter the navy.

David Bedell

"All may do, what has by man been done."

As a tenth grader, Dave took part in track, played intramural volleyball and badminton. He was a member of the Amplifier staff in his junior year, and has worked in the cafeteria for three years. Some of his outside interests are woodcraft, fishing, eating and sleeping, and after graduation he plans to become a carpenter.

Ruth Blatt

"I have a heart with room for every joy."

Ruth has been a member of the School Council for three years and was treasurer in her senior year. She served as class secretary in both the ninth and twelfth grades. Band, chorus, Pep Club, G.A.A., and varsity cheer - leading number among her school activities. After graduation Ruth plans to become a nurse.

David Boehm

"He who owns the soil owns up to the sky." David's interests center around farming. He has farmed 300 acres with full management for eight years. His hobbies are hunting and repairing farm implements. After school he wants to continue this work.

Eleanor Bowman

"Quietness is best."

Eleanor is a sports enthusiast. Along with attending events, she keeps busy with sports herself. In the summer-time her leisure hours are spent in swimming, and in the winter, Eleanor has to be content with ice skating. After she finishes high school she plans to join the U. S. Army.

William Bowman

"Life without sport is not life."

Bill is vice-president of the Varsity Club and a three-year member. He played football for three years, making all-county as a senior. Intramural sports, four years of baseball, two of basketball, and one of track are also prominent on his record. Bill's future plans are indefinite.

Judy Briggs

"A gentle smile, a generous thought - she'll always have friends."

In addition to three years as a member of the Jugs, Judy served as secretary in her senior year. In the tenth grade she was vice-president of the class, worked on the yearbook, and sang in the chorus. In the eleventh grade, she was in the queen's court. Judy has also been a cheerleader for three years. After graduation, she would like to work with I.B.M. machines.

Norman Brown

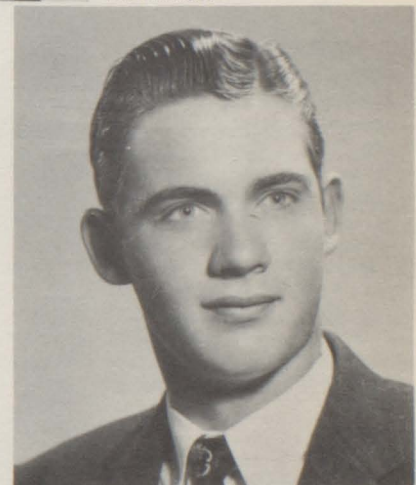

"He conquers who conquers himself."

The United States Air Corps will see a lot of Norm, for he plans to make flying his career. He has played football for two years, and is one of our better baseball players. When he isn't participating in sports Norm likes to do a little hunting.

James Bruner

"The world does not always recognize its greatest men."

Jim's hobby and his ambition are just about one and the same. He plans to be a draftsman and his hobby is drawing. Jim also spends a lot of time with another hobby of his, studying and driving two or four-wheeled methods of transportation.

Annis Busha

"A girl of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows."

Annis participated in G. A. A. and intramural basketball and volleyball in her freshman year. She was a member of the Jugs, sang in the chorus for three years, and was a majorette in her junior and senior years. Annis works part-time and ice skating, swimming and baseball are her hobbies. After graduation, she plans to become a secretary.

Donald Button

"Modesty is attended by profit."

As a lover of sports, Don has participated in intramural basketball, volleyball and badminton. He has also played on the basketball and golf teams. Don was a member of the Hi-Y for two years and a member of the Science Club in his senior year. Golf, hunting, and sports are his hobbies. After graduation he hopes to become a successful businessman.

Albert Campbell

"He has difficulty for every solution."

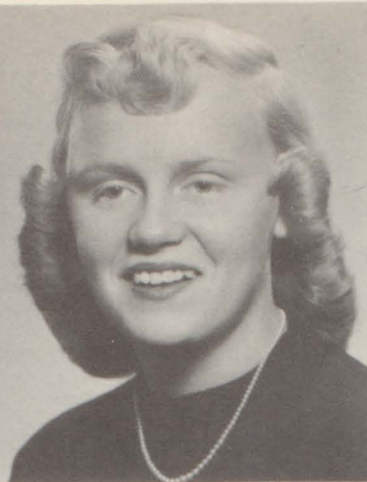

Swimming, photography and stamp collecting are three of Al's hobbies. After school, he works for a newspaper. Intramural volleyball and badminton played a part in Al's sports life, along with football, track and golf. When he starts out on his own, he wants to be a barber.

Arlene Campbell

"Some think the world was made for fun and frolic-and so do I."

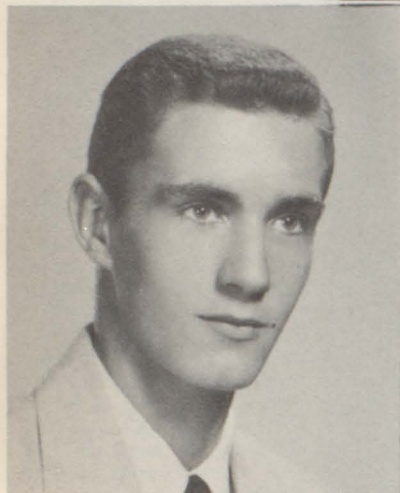

Arlene was in chorus for one year, treasurer of the Pep Club, a member of the Senior Literary Club, and on the School Council for two years. She was also elected to go to Girls' State. Her hobbies are dancing and skating. After graduation she plans on being a nurse.

Wayne Carlisle

"No sinner and no saint, perhaps, but still the very best of chaps."

Wayne was class treasurer as a sophomore, and vice-president as junior and senior. He worked on the yearbook and the Amplifier for two years and was also a member of the Varsity Club. Wayne played on the basketball, football, baseball, track and golf teams, and participated in intramural volleyball and basketball. After graduation he plans to be a coach.

Ray Carrick

"A boy who is not only good, but good for something."

Intramural sports and football kept Ray busy in his freshman year. He joined the Amplifier staff as a junior and has been art editor this year. Ray has worked for a newspaper, and as a gas station attendant and fruit salesman. Oil painting, stamps, model airplanes, and swimming are his hobbies, and he would like to become a commercial artist or a draftsman.

Eleanor Casado

"She won't take 'No' for an answer."

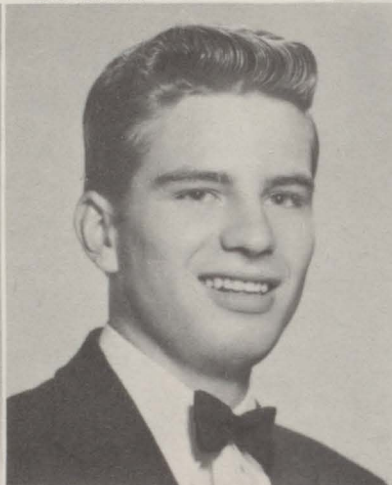

Eleanor has been a member of G.A.A. and the Jugs for two years. She was a cheerleader for three years, a member of the chorus for four years, and participated in intramural baseball, volleyball, and basketball. Dancing is Eleanor's hobby and after graduation she intends to be a beautician.

David Collins

"Happy I am from worries I'm free-why can't others be contented like me?"

Dave has been a Hi-Y Club member for two years. He has helped on various class projects, and went out for track in the tenth grade. When he isn't working for his dad in Detroit, Dave's favorite hobbies are farming, sports and reading. Dave wants to go to college and become an engineer in plastics.

James Davies

"He'll make the goal."

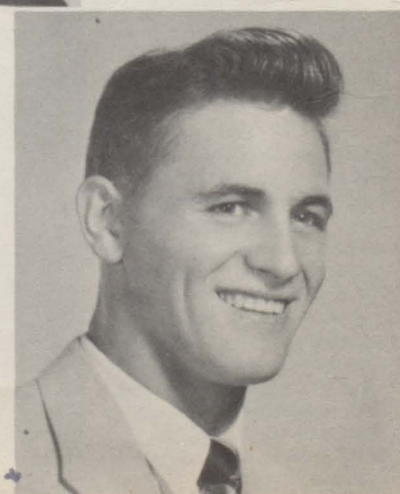

Jim has belonged to Hi-Y Literary Club, Varsity Club, School Council, and served as president of the Honor Society. Musically inclined he worked in the school band, dance band, chorus, and Four Chimes Quartette. Sports minded, as well, he played football, basketball, baseball and track. Jim's hobby is music, and he plans civil engineering or business management as a career.

James Davis

"A man that blushes is not quite a brute."

Participation in baseball, football, and intramural volleyball for three years has kept Jim busy. He was on the track team in his sophomore year. Jim was a member of the Varsity Club for two years and on the Amplifier and yearbook staffs in his senior year. His hobbies are hunting and fishing, and the Marine Corps is his future.

Sandra Dennis

"Pep is the spice of life." Sandra was a member of the Jugs for two years and a member of G.A.A. for one year. She has been in the chorus all through high school. In her freshman and sophomore years Sandra played intramural basketball and volleyball. Dancing, roller skating and swimming are her hobbies. After graduation she plans to be a secretary.

Jean Dimick

"Wherever she finds herself, she'll make a good addition." Jean has taken part in intramural basketball, volleyball, and baseball. She was a member of G. A.A. for two years and in chorus for three years. Dancing is her favorite hobby and following graduation she would like to be a secretary.

Suzanne Dobson

"Quiet, unruffled, always the same, like some sweet picture in a picture frame."

A member of the Pep Club during her junior and senior years, Sue was also in the Camera Club during her senior year. She has been in the chorus for three years. Sue's hobbies are roller skating, ice skating, tennis and swimming. After graduation she plans to be a secretary.

Eleanor Docherty

"She makes many friends wherever she goes."

In her freshman year Eleanor was in the Library Club and played intramural volleyball. She served two years on the Amplifier staff and also worked on the yearbook. As a senior she was the recorder for the Science Club, and a member of the Senior Literary Club. Her ambition is to become a nurse.

Arlene Dukette

"It's nice to be nice when you're naturally nice." Arlene would like to become a beautician after she graduates. In the meantime she has been playing basketball, two years of it, and was in the band for three years.

Florence Fanion

"The mildest manners and the gentlest of heart."

Baby-sitting is Florence's after-school activity. She hopes to be a telephone operator in the near future. In the meantime crocheting, dancing and sports help fill her free hours. Florence has been in the chorus for three years and has served on various class committees.

Eva Dawn Force

"Cares? She never had them."

Eva Dawn has been active in class affairs, and served as prompter in the Junior Play. She played in the high school band for three years, was a member of the Pep Club for two years, and belonged to the Jugs for three years, being treasurer twice. Eva Dawn likes swimming and skating.

Robert Force

"Thought is deeper than speech."

Bob has sung with the chorus for two years. His main interests are hunting, fishing and sports. He spends much of his spare time listening to music. After graduation he plans to begin his career as a machinist or a draftsman.

Gwendolyn Fraser ...

"Of manner gentle, and of affection mild."

Gwen wants to travel, get married, and be a stenographer, in that order. Right now her hobbies include sewing, swimming, dancing, cooking and skating. Besides that she works at a dairy. Gwen has belonged to the Dramatics Club and has worked in the library.

Delma French

"You know I always love a little flirtation."

A member of the Jugs, chorus, and the G.A.A., Delma has also worked at a dairy for the last two years. She played intramural volleyball and basketball, and worked on class committees. Roller skating and dancing fill her free time and after she graduates she plans on marriage and office work.

Terry French

"I never dare to be as funny as I can be."

Terry is known to most of us as two-year class treasurer, member of the School Council, and president of the Pep Club. He participated in the Hi-Y, Junior Play, Science Club, Senior Literary Club, and attended Boys' State. Terry also worked on the yearbook, played intramural sports and track. His hobby is chemistry and his ambition, chemical engineering.

James Frendt

"A dependable man is more precious than gold."

Here is a potential "fly-boy". "First college, and then the air force", says Jim. He played intramural basketball, volleyball, badminton, and baseball, and sang in the chorus for three years. Basketball and football for Marysville brought him a two-year membership in the Varsity Club. In his spare time Jim likes to go hunting, flying, fishing and boating.

Irene Frizzle

"Her smile is as big as her heart."

Work has consumed a big part of Irene's senior year; however, she has managed to help out in various activities, including the Junior Play and class committees. Irene also worked in the library for two years. In her spare time she likes to sew and read, and plans to be a career-girl and housewife.

Barbara Gamble

"A redhead, and a decided one"

Our class redhead has played intramural badminton and volleyball, both for two years. Barb has played in the band for two years, and been a member of G.A.A. Away from school, she likes tennis, ice skating and roller skating. She will join the ranks of the practical nurses after graduation.

James Garety

"The farmers are the founders of civilization and prosperity."

Jim wants to be a T. V. repairman, a farmer or a conservation officer. He has appropriate hobbies to match these ambitions: radio work, photography, hunting, woodworking, camping, and farming.

Clayton Gerstenberger

"A good disposition is worth more than gold."

Clayt played in intramural sports: volleyball, basketball, and badminton. He is in chorus, as a senior, and played football in his freshman year. Eating, tinkering with cars, and hunting are Clayt's after-school hobbies. After graduation he plans to continue at the drive-in where he is now working.

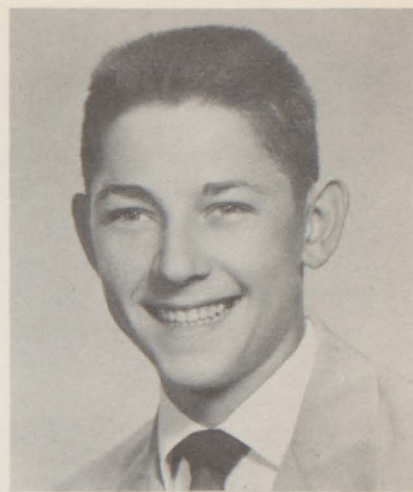

Georgina Gonzalez

"Every girl for herself."
Georgina, who attended the Edison Institute in Havana, Cuba, has been quite active here in Marysville. She takes part in most of the class activities, and belongs to the Pep Club and Science Club. Her favorite hobbies are skating, swimming, and tennis. She plans to take a business administration course at Junior College.

Robert Gray

"All the great men are now dying. I don't feel very good myself."
Working for a newspaper leaves Bob with little time on his hands. He played intramural basketball, and school basketball in the tenth grade. When he's not working or in school, he likes to hunt and skate. Bob plans to move around a bit after graduation.

William Green

"Life is what you make it."

Bill has been a member of the football team, and has played intramural volleyball and basketball. He works after school at a market, and when he has the time, he likes to hunt. After he graduates, Bill plans to become an architect.

Sandra Hall

"Choose the best life, habit will make it pleasant."

Sandy has been in the Pep Club, and a member of the School Council. Baseball, intramural volleyball, and bowling have made up the sports' side of Sandy's life. She has served in the band and as assistant yearbook editor. Sandy works in her dad's store, plays piano, and collects stamps. She plans to be an airline stewardess.

Frederick Hamlin

"A truly modest fellow."
While he was in the ninth grade at Kimball, Fred was a member of the 4-H Club. In his spare time, Fred likes to engage in his favorite hobby, music. He plans some day to become an electronics engineer.

Paul Harrington

"Seems quiet but you never can tell."

This yearbook is one of the things to which Paul has contributed time and effort. Other class activities, Pep Club and Science Club have also received his attentions. In sports, Paul has participated in football and track. His hobbies are science and photography, and he hopes to become an electrical engineer.

Sally Hendrick

"Laugh and the world laughs with you, frown and you wrinkle your face."

For the last two years, Sally has been in the Pep Club, chorus, and active in class activities. Her hobbies include collecting unique cups, saucers, and napkins, and going ice skating. She wants to be a private secretary.

Charles Henry

"An equal mixture of good humor and good sense."

Chuck is a member of the Hi-Y Club, has served on various class committees, and has been active in football, baseball, and track. In his after-school hours Chuck likes to go trapping, and build model airplanes. After graduation he plans to become an automotive engineer.

Lawrence Hinkley

"To be strong is to be happy."

Ninth grade basketball and intramural basketball and volleyball were Larry's school activities. His hobby is working on cars, and he hopes to become a truck driver.

Ermajean Hoag

"Quietness is a virtue."

Sewing, music, and skating are three of the things that Ermajean likes to do best. Besides these things she has been in the Pep Club and chorus, and has participated in various activities. After graduation she would like to become a secretary.

Robert Hooper

"He is never quiet but when he is sleeping."

Bob topped his class in junior magazine sales. He played in band for four years, and belonged to Hi-Y, Scholastic Club, Varsity Club, Pep Club, and Senior Literary Club. In addition to intramural sports he played football, basketball and golf. He likes basketball, fishing, and traveling. Bob plans to be an engineer.

Nancy Houle

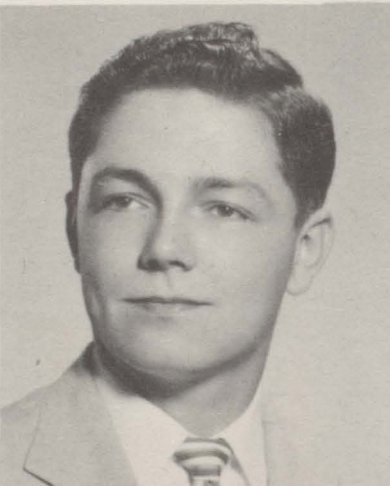

"If music be the food of love, play on."

Nancy belonged to the Senior Literary Club, Pep Club, 4-H, and the Dramatics Club. She has played intramural sports, worked on class committees, was in the Junior Play, and accompanied the chorus for two years. She also plays the piano, swims, and skates. Nancy plans to become a medical technologist.

Donna Hughes

"She is like quiet laughter, pleasing, yet unassuming."

Donna has been a member of the Pep Club, the Jugs, and the G.A.A. She has taken part in various activities and has been a member of the chorus for four years. In her spare time Donna likes to collect records. She plans to work after she finishes school.

Thomas Hyatt

"I know what I like, and that's enough."

Tom earned his membership in the Varsity Club by playing basketball, track and football. In football he was named all-county center and received all-state honorable mention. Class committees and chorus have taken up much of his time in school. After hours he was ambulance driver for a funeral home.

Joseph Irvine

"Napoleon was small and considered great; I am small, but just you wait."

A member of the Varsity Club for two years, Joe also belonged to the 4-H Club. He played football and then became manager of the team. He has also been manager of the baseball and basketball teams. He likes to hunt, swim, fish, and skate, and is headed for the army after graduation.

David Jackson

"Live and learn."

Dave has been in the Dramatics Club, 4-H Club, Hi-Y, basketball, baseball, football and track. He worked on yearbook, and has been in journalism for two years, this year as sports editor. Dave likes to build model boats and planes in his spare time and he plans to become either a newspaper reporter or an architect.

Irene Jakubiak

"As merry as the day is long."

Irene is one of our four-year cheerleaders and has always been interested in sports. She has played in intramural games and was a member of the G.A.A. and Pep Club. The Junior Play, chorus, and cafeteria work have also taken their share of her time. Ice skating, dancing and singing are her hobbies, and she wants to teach physical education.

Rosealee Johnson

"A small package full of surprises."

Rosealee has been active on class committees, a member of the Dance Club, and the Dramatics Club. Although working at a bakery, Rosealee has played basketball and baseball and has been a cheerleader. She collects state pennants and she aspires to become an I.B.M. operator.

Phyllis Jones

"If a smile wins, all the world is yours."

After membership in the Pep Club, the Senior Literary Club and the Science Club, Phyllis wants to enter the field of medicine in the future. She served as assistant editor of the yearbook, and has been a band member for four years. Phyllis has played intramural volleyball and basketball, and music is her hobby.

Joan Jowett

"The smile on her face is the reflection of the feeling in her heart."

Our homecoming queen of the football season, Joan would some day like to be an elementary teacher. She has belonged to the Future Nurses' Club, the Library Club, and the Pep Club. She has been active in class activities, has played basketball and baseball, and has been a cheerleader.

Richard Kemp

"There must be an easier way."

Dick has set up two goals. He wants to be either an electrical engineer or a jet pilot. His hobbies are working on automobiles and flying airplanes. He works after school in a grocery store. Dick has played intramural basketball.

Edward Kidder

"Handsome is as handsome does."

Ed has been our class president for the last two years. He belonged to the Varsity Club, Student Council, 4-H Club, Junior Play and the chorus. In sports, he has participated in football, basketball, baseball and track. Ed plans to go to college and then enter law enforcement work.

Carol Kilbourne

"Steady and staunch, quiet and true, the best of friends to me and you."

Carol has kept busy with class activities, helping on dinners, various committees, and other social functions. In the summertime she likes to swim, and in the wintertime, she takes to the ice. Carol would like to be a married secretary after graduation.

Lois King

"Be silent and safe—silence never betrays you."

Lois has been in the Pep Club since its beginning. She has been in the chorus for three years and in the library for one. She played intramural basketball for one year and volleyball for two. Lois wants to work in an office after she finishes school.

Lynn Kleckner

"Things forbidden have a secret charm."

Despite the fact that Lynn has been working for a newspaper, he has had time for the Hi-Y Club, intramural basketball, and his favorite hobby, automobiles. After he graduates, Lynn wants to be either an electrical engineer or a pilot for Uncle Sam.

Margo Kleeves

"Politeness costs nothing and gains everything."

Margo has done a number of things. She has been in Dramatics Club, Square Dance Club, and she was also a cheerleader in the ninth grade. When she wasn't busy cheerleading she was playing intramural basketball and baseball. Margo likes to go ice skating. After she gets her diploma she wants to work and travel.

Bessie Knepper

"May she never change except in name."

Bessie has more hobbies than she can keep up with. She makes knickknacks, paints them, paints textiles, dances, ice skates, and reads if she has time. Bessie worked in the library in her sophomore year and she has been on many class committees since then. She wants to be a housewife, and to help make people happy.

Virginia Kotzke

"Silence is more eloquent than words."

Intramural volleyball is one of the sports Virginia likes best. Swimming and skating are two more favorite sports. Lots of travel and secretarial work are two of Virginia's greatest ambitions. She belongs to the Pep Club and chorus, and has taken part in class activities.

Arlene Kreciesz

"Smile and the world smiles with you."

Arlene, better known as "Penny", is the owner of the dimpled face we have seen in the library for three years. She takes part in lots of class committees, and played intramural sports. Singing and playing the piano are her hobbies. She plans to work in the medical field after she graduates.

Maxine LaVere

"Blonde hair and smiling face, scatters sunshine every place."

Maxine has been in the Pep Club for two years, and in the chorus for three. Her hobbies include all sports. In school she has played baseball and volleyball. When she graduates, Maxine plans to enter the women's branch of the armed forces.

Mary Louise Lavis

"The way to have a friend is to be one."

The girl with the ready smile has been in the Pep Club and the 4-H Club for two years, and the Art Club for one year. Journalism helped consume her time in the eleventh grade. Mary's hobbies can all be rolled into one: art work. She would like, someday, to design women's clothes.

Keith Lenk

"If pleasure interferes with work, quit work."

Keith has been a member of the band for four years, played intramural basketball, badminton, and volleyball, and has also played some football and basketball. He is vice-president of the Pep Club, president of the Literary Club, a member of the Honor Society, and a member of the year-book and Amplifier staffs. He wants to attend M.S.U.

Robert Limberg

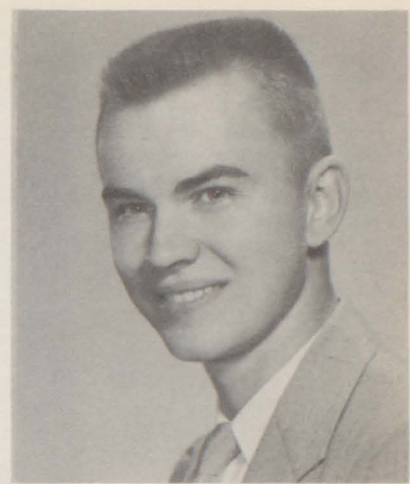

"Men of few words are the best."

If any of you morticians-to-be are looking around for a partner, Bob is your man. For three years he served as president of the Hi-Y and as a member of the band. Bob played football and intramural volleyball in the ninth grade. Hunting, fishing, and working with cars occupy his spare time.

David Lindsay

"No one knows what he can do till he tries."

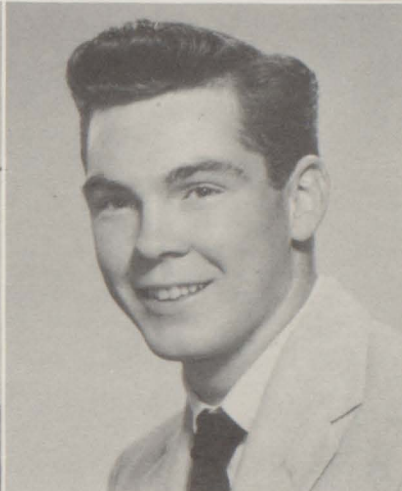

Dave has been busy during high school. In addition to working after school he has managed to help with posters and dance themes. He attended Interlochen on a scholarship and has played in the band for six years. Tennis, drawing, music, swimming and radio work are his hobbies. Dave plans to be an architect or a contractor.

Harry Liverance

"If man has patience, what need has he of armor?"

Harry is a dyed-in-the-wool farmer, and says he always will be. For the past four years he has worked after school, at night, and weekends at the job of farming. Harry also does some hunting and fishing. After he graduates he plans to continue farming.

James Livingston

"A good sort and a good sport."

Jim is a sports-minded fellow. He not only played football, baseball and track, but he managed the basketball team as well. He played noon-hour intramural volleyball, and was a member of the Varsity Club. Jim plans to join the United States Air Force.

Sylvia Luciani

"The angel is thinking, but the devil's thinking harder."

Combining a part-time job and school work has kept Sylvia busy. She has also been a member of the chorus for three years and a member of the Jugs. Her hobbies are ice-skating and dancing. Secretarial work and housewife's duties will dominate Sylvia's future.

Jackie MacDonald

"A smile is currency in any country."

Jackie, a future beautician, also likes sports. She has played intramural volleyball and basketball, and her favorite hobbies are dancing and roller skating. She has been in chorus for three years and also in the Jugs.

Bonnie MacPherson

"Full of fire, mischief, too, doing the little things she shouldn't do."

Bonnie has served her class on the Junior Play, J-Hop, and Junior-Senior Banquet. She was active in Pep Club, Jugs, and G.A.A. One of our leading cheerleaders, Bonnie also sang with the chorus. She likes to draw and plans to become a fashion designer.

Gloria Martin

"Laughter is her philosophy".

Gloria was sole typist for the yearbook and hopes to make typing her career. She joined the Jugs as a sophomore, and played in the band for five years. The Junior Play found her on the sidelines as prompter. Gloria likes to roller skate, ice skate, and read a little.

Lillian Mayer

"I can because I believe I can."

The gal we know as a cafeteria cashier likes to sew, go camping, and sing. Lillian belonged to the Pep Club, Senior Literary Club, and the Science and Library Clubs. Chorus, School Council, and the Junior Play also number among her activities. Lillian wants to teach in the elementary grades.

Helen McCallom

"Whatever happens, smile. It might be worse."

An aspiring authoress, Helen also likes to write poetry. Quiet but helpful, she worked on the Junior Play, the Junior-Senior Banquet, and class committees. Dramatics Club and Handicrafts Club activities will be beneficial when she becomes an elementary teacher. Helen works at a photography studio.

Maxine Meddaugh

"Quietness is a sign of intelligence."

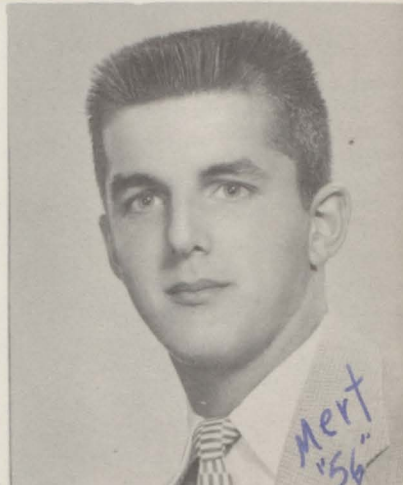

Maxine divides her time among many things. The Pep Club, chorus, intramural sports, and various class committees have kept her busy. She likes to relax with roller skating and ice skating, and plans to become a beauty operator.

Ernest Merrithew

"Courage is never out of fashion."

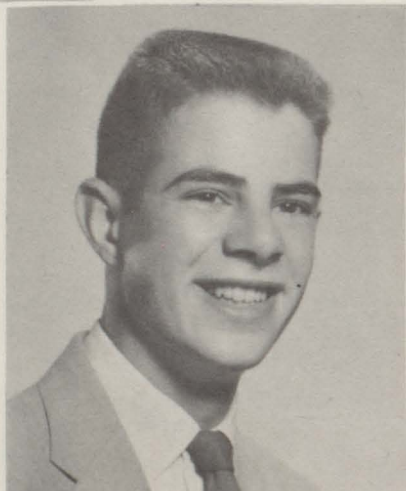

An all-around sport is the best way to describe Ernie. He played football, basketball, track and baseball, and participated in intramural sports. He was a representative on the School Council, and a member of the Varsity Club and chorus. Ernie sang with the Four Chimes after hours. His outside interests are sports, and his ambition is to be a coach.

Roger Mertz

"I'm not lazy- just don't want to work."

Originally from Port Huron High School, Roger took part in chorus and intramural volleyball and basketball. The water seems to be his favorite haunt, and he also likes hunting and fishing. Roger is headed for college in the fall.

Marilyn Middleton

"Worry and I have never met."
